ACHIEVEMENTS

Midcore Mobile Game

As an indie developer I have created a 2d mobile game (Android) and published it on Google play. Game contains: Game economy (purchasing items with in-game currency), Character Improvements, Enemy and Ally characters, Daily Gifts, 5 playable levels and more.

KFC Coupon Game

While I was working with Kant, I had developed a desktop game for KFC (fastfood chain). Purpose of the game was gifting the highest scoring participants with KFC discount coupon.
